From the legendary Biltmore comes Quintessence, a new perspective on a true original. The Vanderbilts, who built and lived in Biltmore Home, were noted for their gracious hospitality and their attention to detail regarding style, quality, and comfort in their home. Quintessence captures this thoughtfulness through the confluence of vintage and contemporary elements, resulting in fresh and unexpected materials, features, and finishes within this unique, elegantly refined collection.

FRESH New STYLES, STEEPED IN HERITAGE
Baldwin King Bed
1889-367/368/369 | 87 5/8w x 92 5/8d x 91 1/8h

Sorbonne Nightstand
1880-102 | 33w x 18 1/2d x 33h

Hawthorne Nightstand
1880-100 | 32w x 18d x 33h

Lyre Bench
1889-500 | 72w x 21d x 35h

Gardenia Chair
8807-03 | 31w x 26d x 33h
Inspired by furnishings in Edith Vanderbilt’s Parisian apartment, this bed features elegant lines with graceful carved detail styling along the top, creating an air of lightness.
The Sorbonne Nightstand features tambour doors on each corner that open to reveal charging stations for electronics. A marble top and updated cabriole legs serve up a sleek silhouette.
Inspired by a stone antique planter on the estate, the Athena Dining Table is characterized by its dentil molding details around the edge of the table top and small fleur detailing around the table apron.
